

Rams

(15) 2016, Iceland,
90 mins, Subtitles

Four decades.
Two brothers.
One really big grudge.
A hilarious yet poignant comedy from Iceland.

Friday 27th January
8.00pm Hallhill

Dheepan

(15) 2016, France,
112 mins, Subtitles

A Tamil warrior and his surrogate family flee to France only to find themselves living in a different kind of war zone.

Friday 24th February
8.00pm Hallhill

Mustang

(15) 2016, France/Turkey,
95 mins, Subtitles

5 sisters rebel against the conservative guardians who would steal their freedom. A touching portrayal of innocent
strength and resilience against modern misogyny.

Friday 31st March
8.00pm Hallhill

Tokyo Story

(U) 1953, Japan,
135 mins, Subtitles

An old couple visit their children in the city but their family have little time for them. A masterpiece of Japanese cinema which has lost none of its power more than half a century on.

Friday 28th April
8.00pm Hallhill

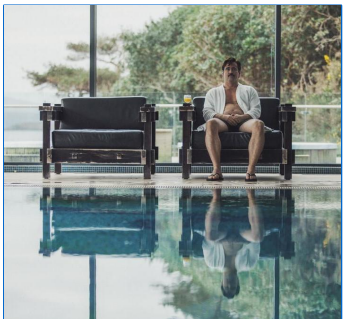

Things to Come

(12A) 2016, France,
100 mins, Subtitles

A woman reinvents her life following a series of personal disasters. An intelligent, poetic and naturalistic exploration of the pursuit of contentment in the face of adversity.

Friday 26th May
8.00pm Hallhill

The Lobster

(15) 2015 Greece/Ireland
118 mins

A surreal comedy set in a dystopian future where single people are arrested and given 45 days to find love or be turned into an animal.

Friday 30th June
8.00pm Hallhill

Son of Saul

(15) 2015, Hungary,
105 mins, Subtitles

A prisoner disposing of bodies from the gas chambers of Auschwitz finds the body of a boy he believes to be his own son.

Friday 25th August
8.00pm Hallhill

Notes on Blindness

(U) 2016, UK, 90 mins

A poetic and intimate story of loss, rebirth and transformation which documents one man's journey into a world beyond sight.

Friday 29th September
8.00pm Hallhill

Under The Shadow

(15) 2016 UK/Qatar,
84 mins, Subtitles

Tehran in the final year of the Iran-Iraq war: a mother and daughter are threatened by a mysterious evil that invades their home.

Friday 27th October
8.00pm Hallhill

Little Men

(PG) 2016, US, 85 mins

Over the course of a few months in Brooklyn,
childhood friendship is tested by grown-up problems in this affecting, intimate drama

Friday 24th November
8.00pm Hallhill

Dunbar Film

2017