D.C.W.G.
For trees, for wildlife, for people

Dunbar Community Woodland Group (D.C.W.G.) was set up to oversee the care and maintenance of Lochend Woods which belong to the townsfolk of Dunbar.

Membership is open to anyone and everyone

OUR AIMS:

To manage Lochend Woods as a community resource for the benefit of everyone.
Maximise potential for educational and recreational use, and to value wildlife.
Encourage all who use the woods to treat them with respect, to clear litter and to discourage damage to the trees and wildlife habitats.
To steward the environment, and maintain pathways and waterways.

As a member you can help us with maintenance projects we undertake, such as footpath upkeep, litter collection, tree planting etc. You will also be eligible to join our management committee.

IN RETURN you will receive our bi-annual Newsletter, two car stickers, gain a lot of satisfaction from knowing you are doing your bit and make new friends – no matter how small your involvement.

D.C.W.G. is a Registered Charity in Scotland: SCO 34 990

D.C.W.G. is associated to the Community Woodlands Association (CWA)
