

JUDY RILEY'S love of gardens and a fascination for their design and history led her to become a landscape architect. Born in Cambridge, her first career was as a linguist and she taught Spanish in Ireland before settling in Scotland, where she continued to teach. A keen conservationist, she was the founding chair of Scotland's Garden and Landscape Heritage.

ISBN: 9781839830112
Price: £25.00
Publication: 05 May 2022
Format: 246 x 189mm Paperback
Extent: 240pp
Illustrations: Colour throughout
ePub: 9781788854962
Rights: World All Languages

Tynninghame

Landscapes and Lives

For many people, Tynninghame on the beautiful East Lothian coast means beaches, sea birds and salt marshes. But this place on the southern boundary of the Firth of Forth was once an important monastic site, the burial place of St Baldred and later a bishop's palace that eventually became the seat of the earls of Haddington. The church, the house, the gardens and surroundings have undergone many transformations since they lived here, but somehow their vision has remained intact and unspoiled.

Judy Riley reveals a fascinating story, weaving together the different threads which make up this special place in a corner of East Lothian.

Uncovers the archaeological, historical, religious and horticultural history behind Tynninghame

For fans of fascinating local history

Illustrated with full colour throughout